Pitzer College
Acknowledgements of At-Will Employment and Confidentiality

At-Will Employment
I acknowledge and understand that my employment is temporary and at-will, and that there is neither a guarantee nor a contract of employment. This means that I, and likewise Pitzer College, may end the employment relationship at any time, with or without notice or cause, unless otherwise prohibited by law. I understand that the anticipated end date indicated above is as such and my employment assignment may end sooner than anticipated, or may last longer than anticipated.

Confidentiality Agreement
I understand that in the course of my employment with Pitzer College, I may have access to and become acquainted with information of a confidential, sensitive or proprietary nature, which is or may be, either applicable or related to the past, present or future business of the College or its research and development. Such sensitive information includes but is not limited to, databases, processes, compilations of data, records, and information concerning employees of the College, students, alumni, trustees, vendors, volunteers, or contractors.

I agree that I will not disclose any confidential information, directly or indirectly, or use it in any way, or at any time, except as required in the course of my employment with Pitzer College.
